This notification is the call for papers, panels, and roundtables for the 2016 conference of the Arkansas Political Science Association. The Arkansas Political Science Association is a professional association of university and secondary school Political Science educators, graduate and undergraduate students, practitioners, and others interested in the scientific study of government and political behavior. The Arkansas Political Science Association also publishes a refereed journal: The Midsouth Political Science Review.

The association invites submissions of proposals of papers, panels, and roundtables from scholars and students of Political Science and related disciplines. Please email paper, panel, and roundtable proposals to the appropriate Section Chair (see list below). All proposals should include the information requested under the "Proposals Submission" sub-heading below. If you are uncertain about the placement of the proposed paper, panel, or roundtable, please contact the Program Chair for clarification on the appropriate section. Individuals willing to serve as Panel Chairs or Discussants should send such requests to the appropriate Section Chair.
