

Arkansas Political Science Association (ArkPSA) Executive Board

University of Arkansas-Little Rock, Library 502

November 13, 1976, 10:00am

Meeting Minutes

Members Present: Charles Dunn, Carolyn Zinn, Diane Kincaid, Merrill Pritchett, Joel Anderson, and Walter Nunn.

Report of the Program Committee – Tentative program for the 1977 annual meeting is almost complete.

Report of the Publication Committee – Discussion of options regarding the frequency of the volumes of the journal (quarterly, semi-annual, and annual).

Discussion of the possibility of awards for best papers presented at annual meetings. No decisions made.

Carolyn Zinn presented a report on her survey of social studies teachers and political science education requirements. She said that the state of Arkansas has the lowest requirements of any state in the country. The members discussed the report and decided that Charles Dunn will survey ArkPSA members on pushing legislation to make the U.S. government course mandatory for all Arkansas college and university graduates.

The Executive Board appointed the members of the nominating committee – Joel Anderson (UALR, chairman), Kenneth Bailey (UA-Fayetteville), Jeddy LeVar (HSU), Charles Hartwig (ASU-Jonesboro), and Robert McChesney (UCA).

Meeting adjourned at 11:30am.
