This notification is the call for papers, panels, and roundtables for the 2013 conference of the Arkansas Political Science Association. The Arkansas Political Science Association is a professional association of university and secondary school Political Science educators, graduate and undergraduate students, practitioners, and others interested in the scientific study of government and political behavior. The Arkansas Political Science Association also publishes a refereed journal: The Midsouth Political Science Review.

The association invites submissions for papers, panels, and roundtables from educators and students in Political Science, as well as related disciplines. Those interested who are conducting research related to the sub-fields listed below are encouraged to submit a proposal to the appropriate section chair. All proposals should include the information requested under the "Proposals Submission" sub-heading below. If you are uncertain about the proposed paper's/panel's/roundtable's placement, please contact the program chair for clarification on the appropriate section. Individuals willing to serve as panel chairs or discussants should send requests to the appropriate section chair.
